

Prophet Dowie Insane and Helpless

John Alexander Dowie is raving mad. The founder of Zion City has forgotten his own identity, knows nothing of the church he established, and believes himself to be the commander of a certain division of a mythical army. The only name he knows for himself is "Jerry."

His followers, irrespective of sex, have become to him "gentlemen of the army" and he sees warships of the foreign powers anchored in the lake to pay honor to his dead chief.

Defeated in the courts by Voliva, spurned by his son and wife, and beaten at the polls in the election in which he tried to again secure a grasp on the affairs of the city he built, the old man has become a mental as well as a physical wreck, and his stanchest supporters say that it will not be long before the "first apostle" will be stricken by the scythe of time. He is utterly unable to assist himself, and has to remain in whatever position he is placed by his negro body servants until they move him. He is now stretched out on his bed mumbling incoherently to himself, and it is said in Zion City that the few Zionists who remain faithful to his standard will never again look upon him alive.

A few of the loyal claim he is "weak but rational," but the pitiful spectacle he made a few days ago in attempting an address has convinced nearly all that Dowie is at last insane.

Passed Examination Successfully.

James Donahue, New Britain, Conn., writes: "I tried several kidney remedies, and was treated by our best physicians for diabetes, but did not improve until I took Foley's Kidney Cure. After the second bottle I showed improvement, and five bottles cured me completely. I have since passed a rigid examination for life insurance." Foley's Kidney Cure cures back-ache and all forms of kidney and bladder trouble. Bort & Co.
